BUDGET

HOUSE REPUBLICANS

REP. JASON SMITH, REPUBLICAN LEADER

When asked to defend a massive spending agenda, President Biden said:

"What would they have me cut? What would they have me leave out?"

We are glad you asked, Mr. President.

A Consulted Tear Down

Saginaw, MI is spending $1.3 million from the American Rescue Plan to tear down old structures on an abandoned fairground:

"We are really trying to do stuff to move the city forward," the mayor said. "We heard your cry; we heard what the people have been asking for there..."

But they aren't landing these ideas all on their own. Nope. Saginaw is also paying a consulting firm upwards of $850,000 from the "Rescue Plan" to help guide "its stimulus-spending strategy" – basically wasting taxpayer dollars to figure out how to waste taxpayer dollars.

Pretty sure this is not what the American people were asking for when the Biden Administration decided to spend $2 trillion under the guise of fighting COVID. And right now, families are crying out for relief from high prices at the gas pump and grocery line.

Stay tuned for more.
